Bombing of Yugoslavia - NATO angel's war games 100x100 cm Oil on canvas 2009

There, while laying down, taking a sunbath, inebriated with the sun, looking at the empty high sea, mirage of sea stories come across your mind in constant fight with the wind that prevents them to get together, to appear in the right shape, clearly and in full experience.
Only the waves are trying to constantly repeat it, one just needs to understand them, clearly listen to them,
particularly in the night, while laying in bed, alling asleep, embarking on the night sail of the sea of thoughts, the sea of the origin.....
