Artist's Statement

Ralph White is an abstract artist who brings a lifetime of transformational thinking into his paintings. A highly successful executive business coach, Ralph has worked with thousands of clients to re-direct their thinking toward possibilities. Now he brings this philosophy into his art, continually seeking to express the soul's ability to transform. His paintings reflect his constant pursuit of enlightenment and his openness to creative response.

This is an artist who is inspired by the power of intention. Ralph believes in the artist's and viewer's ability to create relationship through each image, and he is continually intrigued by the convergence of the art and the observer. Through his work, Ralph persistently creates the opportunity to delve into and facilitate personal breakthrough.
