

Fotoart Iumazen – Birgit Moser

The photographer Birgit Moser currently focuses on fine art photography – on still lives portraying the strange moments of daily life. She is interested in all phenomena of light and how light transforms the seemingly obvious into a new reality – thus creating the magic of the image.

Birgit Moser lives and works in Germany. She travelled in diverse countries, from North America to Mexico and Europe, focusing initially on landscape and street photography. She lived in Korea for 2 years, crossed Asia, focusing on Korea, Nepal, Japan, China, Vietnam and Mongolia.

Since 2001, Birgit works intensely on photography. Since 2011 she had numerous exhibitions in Germany and Europe. She was a founding member of the artist cooperative extract (www.extract-art.com) and of the group Zsubalu (www.zsubalu.jimdo.com). Birgit attended master courses with Josef Schulz in Irsee 2014, Nica Junker 2015 and Sonja Braas in 2016.

Birgit has successfully contributed to many art and photography prizes and become 3. Prize winner of the Alzey-Worms Art prize in 2016, offered by the local municipal gallery. She turned finalist eg. at Premio Arte Laguna (2015), Premio Celeste (2015), Premio Lynx, The Julia Cameron Gala Award and the ARTIG Art prize offered by the art association in Kempten (2016). She gained a Dotart honorable mention in 2015 (street) and Sipa first selection 2016.

She is represented by the Munich Gallery: www.electric-artcube.com.
